

COVID-19 in Wisconsin

Confirmed COVID-19 Cases per 100,000 by Combined Statistical Area, Day 1-64 of Outbreak in Wisconsin

Confirmed COVID-19 Cases per 100,000 by Combined Statistical Area on Day 40 of Outbreak in Wisconsin

Source: ResistanceMap. The rate of infection is defined as the number of confirmed cases in a combined statistical area (CSA) divided by the total population. The x-axis represents the number of days since reporting at least 20 confirmed cases or 1 death for COVID-19 infections in the CSA. Updated: 2020-05-13

Confirmed COVID-19 Cases per 100,000 by Combined Statistical Area, Day 1-64 of Outbreak in Wisconsin

- Chicago-Naperville, IL-IN-WI
- Green Bay-Shawano, WI
- ▼— Minneapolis-St. Paul, MN-WI
- ◆— Appleton-Oshkosh-Neenah, WI
- ▲— Milwaukee-Racine-Waukesha, WI
- Madison-Janesville-Beloit, WI

© Center for Disease Dynamics, Economics & Policy (CDDEP)

Source: ResistanceMap. The rate of infection is defined as the number of confirmed cases in a combined statistical area (CSA) divided by the total population. The x-axis represents the number of days since reporting at least 20 confirmed cases or 1 death for COVID-19 infections in the CSA. Updated: 2020-05-13

Confirmed COVID-19 Cases per 100,000 by Combined Statistical Area on Day 40 of Outbreak in Wisconsin

